THE AUTHENTIC TUNA COOKED IN A POT. QUALITY WITHOUT COMPROMISE.

COALMA L'AUTENTICO Tuna in olive oil

Since 1922 - with undiminished passion for the sea and its fruit - we have been producing Coalma autentico tuna, faithfully respecting the traditional Sicilian recipe that involves cooking the tuna in water and salt, that to enhance the quality of the raw materials without affecting texture and taste.

Yellowfin tunas, carefully selected on board, and the best quality of olive oil distinguish this Macaluso line from the more industrial canned tuna available on the market. This line includes canned tuna and fillets in glass jars.

A tasty and inimitable tuna that, once tried, is able to attract and retain even the most demanding consumers.

Macaluso monitors every step of the production to ensure the excellent quality standard that is appreciated every day and continues being sought by customers around the world.

COALMA L'AUTENTICO Light tuna in water

"Yellow Fin" tuna cooked in water and salt and packed in water, lightly flavored with sea salt.

Light tuna is particularly tasty, reserved for those who do not like the usual preservation in oil.

Also this particular product maintains the exclusive processing procedure followed by Macaluso, in order to keep flavors and texture unaltered giving a really unique taste to the product.

COALMA L'AUTENTICO TUNA IN OLIVE OIL HO.RE.CA.

Simply cooking the selected Yellowfin tuna in a pot of salty water and the best quality of olive oil distinguish this Macaluso line from more industrialized products.

In addition to its traditional processing, its packing by hand is to be mentioned: the whole slices are cut by hand to be y inserted inside the can intelligently.

This line is dedicated to a habitual consumer who, for family use or professional need, looks for quality and bigger quantity, and can recognize the characteristics of a high quality tuna in this Macaluso product.

DUE PAVONI SALTED TUNA

Salted tuna is an old-time product, which is mentioned even in ancient Phoenician texts. It is known that salting food was indeed the first way to conserve fresh food. From this long tradition derives Due Pavoni salted tuna, a product for true connoisseurs, produced only by few companies following the ancient recipe. Macaluso has always paid close attention to the preservation of culture and seafaring traditions, and so has managed to reproduce the different stages of the preparation one after one to keep the authenticity and flavors of the past intact.
